

Application

Evaluating DMI Teacher Application Instructions

Information about what it means to be part of the Evaluating DMI project is available on the Project Details page. This includes a description of the seminars, your responsibilities as part of the research, a copy of the informed consent documents for your research participation, and other materials.

When you are ready to apply, come back here to complete the application.

Applications for Charlotte-Mecklenberg seminars are closed.
Applications for Massachusetts seminars are closed.

Ready To Apply?

To apply online (recommended)

Click on the link below to open a new window with a survey allowing you to provide application information and consent for the research and submit it directly to TERC. This is the fastest and easiest way to apply.

*We're sorry. Applications for Evaluating DMI are now closed.*

If you're having a problem accessing the application, please contact us at evaluatingdmi \(at\) terc \(dot\) eduterc(dot)edu), or by phone at 617-873-9600.
To apply using a printed application

You can also download and print the applications. DMI Teacher Application\_August1.pdf

North Carolina application

You may return paper applications by:

Postal Mail

TERC, c/o Evaluating DMI
Attn: Sherry Soares
2067 Massachusetts Avenue
Cambridge, MA 02140

fax: 617-873-9602

Or, scanned applications can be sent to evaluatingdmi \(at\) terc \(dot\) eduterc(dot)edu).