

Session 1 Lesson 1 Discussion

Please respond to the following question using the Discussion Board below:

People accept that if you lift weights, you get stronger. If you practice playing an instrument, you get better, but people tend to have an all-or-nothing attitude toward math — you're either a math person or not. How would Willingham regard that view?

Using the Discussion Board

To respond to someone's comment:

Click the word "Reply" that is under that comment. The Edit and Delete options can be found in the same area.

To begin a new topic of your own:

Scroll to the very bottom of the page and type your message in the box labeled "Write a comment...".
